SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH... JUNE 7, 2011- The Days of '47 Celebration is proud to announce that the world famous Days of '47 Rodeo will return to the air-conditioned comfort of the Maverik Center for the third year in a row. This long standing summer tradition will delight the entire family when it hits the dirt at Maverik Center (formerly The E Center of West Valley City) on July 18-25. Tickets are on-sale now.

The Days of '47 Rodeo promises to be bigger and better this year as it plows its way into West Valley City and brings with it some of the country's best pro cowboys and cowgirls. The Bar T's award winning rodeo stock will be sure to entertain as these world-class athletes compete for more than $200,000 in prize money in one of the country's top ranked PRCA rodeos.

All of the classic rodeo events are back including bareback and saddle bronc riding, bull riding, barrel racing, team roping, steer wrestling and tie-down roping.

“This rodeo is rich in tradition and heritage. It is a privilege for me to be involved in bringing this type of world-class entertainment to the citizens of Utah”, said Brad Harmon, president of the Days of ‘47 Rodeo Committee. “We are so excited to be able to offer such quality entertainment at affordable, family-friendly prices. With every purchase people make these days needing to be justified, we feel that the rodeo provides an exceptional experience and value for families of any size.”

Back by popular demand this year are three HUGE pieces of exceptional entertainment. First, the PRO TOUR FMX (free style MotoCross) will be making a return appearance to dazzle and entertain fans with some breathtaking, high-flying motocross action. Second, the always popular WILD COW MILKING will be back and sure to hold a few surprises each and every night of the rodeo. Last but certainly not least, the rodeo is pleased to have the return of pro barrel man and rodeo clown Mr. Mark Swingler. Audiences can rest assured that they will be thoroughly entertained by Mark’s world famous comedy and clown acts.

“We are pleased to be offering a very affordable $5 ticket to this years rodeo. This ticket is especially affordable because it can be purchased for exactly $5 with NO additional fees or surcharges. In addition to many other pricing and seating options, this $5 ticket will allow anyone on any sized budget to be able to join us for some real wild-west action,” said Harmon.

The Days of ‘47 Rodeo has celebrated Utah’s heritage and pioneer legacy for more than 150 years. Rodeo is one of the oldest forms of recreation in Utah and has been a part of the culture for many, many years. The rodeo is the cornerstone of the week-long celebration centered around the Utah holiday of Pioneer Day/July 24 (this year the holiday will be observed on Monday, July 25).
